

The big fat wedding

The 5th Edition of 'Trousseau Week' is presented by The Collection, UB City, in association with Sublime Galleria and supported by the Prestige Group, Jaguar, from November 21 to 30. The 10-day long wedding festival will provide wedding planning, design and consulting needs under one roof.

This year's theme is 'The Traditional Indian Wedding' and the fluid expanse of The Collection, UB City will be transformed to complement this theme. The space will be accentuated with theme-based installations like an enormous wedding cake, a bejewelled groom pagdi, photo frame hangings, and an in-lit elephant sculpture. The participating designers include stalwarts from fashion design industry like Nee-ta Lulla, Raghavendra Rathore, JJ Valaya and Satya Paul.

Uzma Irfan, additional director, Prestige Group and conceptualiser of 'Trousseau Week' says, "The idea is to showcase the different aspects to a wedding. Today, a lot of people head West for their wedding and indulge in a western wedding. The idea of this year's 'Trousseau Week' is give people an insight into the richness and diversity of Indian culture."

In addition, soon-to-be brides and grooms can also check out the sought-after F-Type and XJ models of Jaguar, which will be present at The Collection throughout the event. The opening night of Jaguar 'Trousseau Week 2014' will depict a modern day full-fledged 'Big Fat Indian Wedding' which will feature seven acts that encapsulate the idea of 'seven steps to forever.' There will also be a performance from Terence Lewis's troupe, who are being flown down from Mumbai, exclusively for this.

Designs by Neeta Lulla.