

Celebration time

It's the Trousseau Week. With the wedding season upon us here is something to give you a heads on. From trousseau and bridal-wear, jewelry and décor to specialized wedding services, Trousseau Week 2011 offers a wide range of ideas and advice to make your wedding preparations painless. Leading national and international fashion designers will be offering special promotions and discounts. There are also one-on-one interactions and workshops on everything from packing a trousseau, hair and makeup, health and fitness, honeymoon planning etc. The workshops are free and open to all.
